

White-Hall. May 8. 1654.

By the Commissioners for Appeals and Regulating the Excise.

It is Ordered, (That notwithstanding the Additionall Ordinance for the Excise) the Commissioners of Excise do forbear to make repayment of any monies upon Exportation of any Exciseable Goods or Commodities to Scotland, that were shipped thither since the twenty fifth day of March last; That, and the Common-wealth of England being United and made one Common-wealth; so that Scotland is now capable of the same Priviledges and Immunities with the Ports in England. And hereof the Commissioners of Excise are to take notice and duely to Observe the same accordingly.

Signed, in the Name, and by the Order of the said Commissioners.
